

UNDERSTANDING DEVICE LIMITATIONS AND SOLUTIONS

Inappropriate therapy

Key take-away points

- Inappropriate therapy is therapy (ATP or defibrillation) delivered for arrhythmias that are not ventricular tachycardias (VT) or ventricular fibrillation (VF).
- Atrial fibrillation (AF) is the most common cause of inappropriate therapy.
- Inappropriate therapy can have a big psychological impact on patients.

Notes